Message of solidarity from the European Committee for Catholic Education (CEEC) to the Catholic Educational Association of the Philippines (CEAP)

Brussels, 26 November 2013

Dear Father Dionisio Miranda,

It is on behalf of all CEEC members that I am sending you this solidarity message after the passing of the typhoon Haiyan through your country.

We know that human and material damage is extensive and that many children have been affected. We wish to express our sympathy to the families of the victims and our wishes of courage to the survivors of this disaster.

We would like to be informed on the development of the situation and the most urgent needs that you have, especially in schools. Please let us know the best way to ensure continuous communication between us in this difficult period, so that we can transfer any message that you would send us to our members all over Europe. You know that you have lots of friends here.

Our prayers are with you in this time of sorrow.

Secretary General
